

WOBURN ART GALLERY

ISSUE 2

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 2018
WOBURNARTGALLERY@GMAIL.COM

Hello Friends of
Woburn Art Gallery

Welcome to our regular newsletter, updating you on what is happening in the gallery.

As ever the core group will be represented but their work is always changed regularly.

We are always looking at new artists that we admire and are sure you will too. We think this collection is the best so far.

This time around we have some Christmas items in stock. From tree hangings through to coasters and tea-light holders plus, of course, that 'little bit different' seasonal gift. eg Ceramic Clocks, Art Deco mirrors.

Last month we had Jan Munro as a coveted new artist in the gallery who has proven extremely popular. When new work was delivered one of her paintings was sold within the hour whilst still propped against the wall. We think this must be a record!

We have some new jewellery which, as always, make ideal gifts. All handmade (boxed) at affordable prices.

Sam has been beavering away to supply us with more stunning glass ware.

Lisa, too, has provided more of her work which we don't have hanging around for very long!

If you're receiving this newsletter it is because you are either a valued customer, friend of the gallery or one of our artists. All of you have contributed to make the gallery a success.
Thank you so much.

Next newsletter will be after the changeover w/c 7th
January, 2019.

Merry Christmas &
Happy New Year...

New In

Lisa Campbell's 'Bucks Cyclists'

Abby has some of her own design phone cases
which make wonderful Christmas pressies. We hold stock of iphone 7
cases but other models
are available.

Terry (catch me if you can) Woods
has some more beautiful landscapes and this is no exception!

Hilary Audus

Having virtually sold out of her
ceramic birds
(and Polar Bear) we now have more stock in.

New Artist—

Diane Griffin

Beautiful ceramics with a story to tell.

Iveta Goddard clocks

Hannah Thomas—

Roy Holding - 'Tuscany'

What a fabulous workshop with
Roy Holding who shared his expertise on how he paints. We all came away with a painting worthy of hanging anywhere. Mine's at home in the lounge. What a gent!

Pet Portraits

If you are quick (by 10/12) you could have a portrait for Christmas. I've had my son's dog painted and it's adorable. Very quirky. You only need a photo.

Do you like or want to get better at outdoor sketching?

If anyone is interest in Urban Sketching please contact me as we're starting a group, meeting once a month armed with sketch books to paint Woburn 'en plein air'— linked internationally.
